6. [] Jim Lowenstein, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called and asked for copies of "the papers" which established the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board and its current membership which he would also like to have. I told Lowenstein I would check on this and be in touch with him. Mr. Maury then made arrangements with [] for Mr. Burke, of the PFIAB staff, to contact Lowenstein directly to provide him with the appropriate information.

8. [] Dropped by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and picked up copies of the two Foreign Aid bills (S. 2819 and S. 2820) and the Committee reports on them, and confirmed that these bills would be taken up by the Senate tomorrow. Although split into separate bills for economic and military assistance, the legislation is virtually the same as the original Foreign Aid bill (H.R. 9910), except for changes in funding levels.

9. [] Mr. Sam Goldberg, Legislative Assistant to Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.) [] called to say that in a conversation with him on the subject of Mr. Helms' new duties the Senator expressed a desire to come out to the Agency (as he has in the past) for a breakfast meeting with the Director. Goldberg suggested I check with Mrs. Arline MacArthur, the Senator's personal secretary, if the Director was available for such a meeting. I told him I would be back in touch with them on this.
